BATH STREET CHANGE NOT OPPOSED

Hearing Before Council Occupied But Few Minutes—W. J.
Ryan made Supernumerary Policeman—Suits Against City Settled For $500—City Bonds Purchased.

For the December meeting of the court of common council Monday evening all the members were in attendance except Councilmen Lang and Briggs. The reading of the journal was omitted. A hearing on the proposed change in grade in Bath street, near Franklin street, was the first business.

Councilman Williams stated at request of Mr. Dearing, who was unable to be present, that Mr. Dearing had no objection, provided there would be no expense to him, as he was given a new grade there a while ago and did not think he should be put to further expense.

There was no other to be heard, and the resolution making the change was adopted.

Raise the Walk.
By this change the walk on the south side of Bath street, from Franklin to a point in front of the Dearing property will be raised to make it even with the other side.

The monthly report of the street commissioner showed the expenditure for the month of November being an average of 66 men employed.

The monthly report of the city treasurer was ordered printed in the journal.

The Plainfield Land and Building company was given leave to withdraw its petition that Maple court be accessible to the public thoroughfare, there being no houses thereon.

Upon the petition for a crosswalk at the corner of South street and Bosworth street, the committee reported that the committee had been in conference with the executive committee and the walk was ordered installed.

More Lights.
Regarding the petition for two are lights in Water street it was reported from the executive committee, through Alderman Parker that one light had been placed midway between Market and Water street.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
CONSIDERED INSURANCE.

Matter Referred to Alderman Beckley for a Conference With County Commissioners and Town Officials.

Following the council meeting on Monday evening there was a meeting of the executive committee for the purpose of considering further the question of insurance on the courthouse. There was an appraisal and insurance of the personal property in the courtroom belonging to the city taken on Monday, the amount being about $20,000. There was received from the commissioners of the local board of fire underwriters a copy of a form which would cover the insurance on the building so as to include everything.

No decision was reached by the committee, but the matter was referred back to Alderman Beckley, that he may have a conference with the county and town authorities concerning their portion of the insurance and what it covers.

Judge Greene Denied Motion.
Judge Greene has denied the motion to expunge in the case of Robinson & Robinson vs. Robinson & Patterson.
The plaintiffs are from Hartford and sue for a bill of $17,900.44, which was claimed by the defendants they do not owe, as the plaintiffs were not employed by them. In denying the motion to expunge Judge Greene decided that such a motion was not the proper remedy to meet the situation and therefore denied it. The motion was heard before the Hartford county superior court.

A Six Year Old Incendiary.
Hartford, Dec. 2.—Francis Meval, six years old, son of a member of the city fire department, confessed to the police today that he set fire to his home on Hamilton street today. The fire, which was under the cellar stairs, was discovered before much damage had been done. The boy also said he set several other fires which have been discovered in the house the past month.

Since Roosevelt's day the big stick has grown a few more destructive knobs.—Chicago News.

Commerce streets in Water street. The report was adopted.

Upon the recommendation of the executive committee a bug light will be established about 100 feet east of Spring street and Mt. Pleasant street.
The petition for an electric light in North Cliff street was presented and also for one on the north side of Falls avenue. These were referred to the executive committee. The petitioners were Thomas Radigan and others, and the John T. Young Boiler company.

Supernumerary Policeman.
William J. Ryan petitioned for an appointment on the supernumerary list of policemen. He was recommended by the police commissioners and was elected a supernumerary by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Ryan is a native of this city, having been born here 34 years ago.
He is five feet ten inches tall and resides at 29 Sixth street. He is employed in the paper mill and was recommended by C. O. Murphy, P. F. Bray and J. J. Kirby.

Catherine Good, widow of James Good, is owner of one-half of the interest in No. 99 Thames street, valued at $200. The whole property being worth $500. She stated that the taxes due to the amount of $19.03. She has a chance to sell her property for $500, and asks for an abatement of the taxes so she may have money to secure her place in a home for the rest of her life. It was recommended that it be referred to the corporation counsel for a conference with the town authorities in the matter.

A deed of land for the entrance to Mohegan park from Charles Bard to the city of Norwich was received and accepted and ordered placed in the appendix of the journal. Alderman Parker explained that this was a matter which had been overlooked for some time.

Everett T. Pitcher asked for permission to connect No. 72 Division street by a special drain with the sewer. It was referred to the executive committee.

Suits Settled.
It was voted that the sum of $500 be paid to William H. Shields in settlement of the suit of Dennis Garvey for the death of his son, Maurice, and illness of his daughter, Mary T. Garvey.

The following bills were paid: Finance, $38,632.95; cemetery, $582.20; fire, $2,197.64; public works, $3,629.19; police, $1,976.09; street lighting, $2,042.36; parks, $388.92.

The following bills were approved: Stony Brook, $15,387.17; Gas and Electrical department, $10,715.91; water department, $1,877.44.

Mayer Thayer in speaking of the expenditure by the finance committee said that that of that amount $70,000 is in paying of loans made in anticipation of taxes, and $15,000 was expended for the purchase of $13,000 of city's bonds for the sinking fund.

The meeting adjourned at 9:15.
